OUT-OF-TOWN WITNESSES

Residents of Baltimore and Norfolk Summoned-Investigation Likely to Go Over to Next Week.

Further effort will be made today by prosecutors in the office of the United States District Attorney to secure in connection with the police graft investigation sufficient corroboration of allegations al-sufficient corroboration of allegations already made to warrant the placing of the evidence before the grand jury when it meets Monday morning.

Although very damaging allegations against as many as ten or twelve members of the police force, including several persons above the rank of private, already have been brought to the attention of the prosecutors, it is plain that the office is seeking additional substantiation. office is seeking additional substantiation office is seeking additional substantiation.
